The High Commission in Canberra is pleased to inform that the newly appointed Consul-General for Malta in Melbourne, Ms. Chirelle Ellul Sciberras, has taken up office on 24 May 2021. Congratulations to Ms. Ellul Sciberras on her appointment and her commencement of work from the Consulate-General, after successfully clearing the mandatory period of quarantine upon arrival in Melbourne.

We would also like to remind clients and applicants that, in line with guidance of the Health Authorities in the State of Victoria, wearing of face masks and face coverings inside our Consulate-General in Melbourne will be mandatory. Members of the public calling in at our office in Melbourne will still be attended to by appointment only.
