In observance of this year's Remembrance Day in Canberra, and ahead of the National Ceremony on Thursday, 11 November 2021, the High Commissioner of Malta H.E. Mr. Mario Farrugia Borg, laid a red and white wreath on the Stone of Remembrance at the Australian War Memorial, in the morning of Wednesday, 10 November 2021, in honor of those who had perished in wars and armed conflict.

The Diplomatic Corps were welcomed by the Australian War Memorial Director, Mr. Matt Anderson PSM, who greeted everyone as they arrived with the now familiar elbow bump.

The reduced National Ceremony on the 11th was on account of current AWM renovations requiring the ceremonial program to relocate while also observing COVID 19 safe guidelines and restrictions.
